

Paid Catering Experience

SHARP

SEDFORD HISTORICAL AND
ARCHAEOLOGICAL RESEARCH PROJECT

Caterers Wanted!

Summer 2023.

25th June- 13th August.

Sedgeford Historical and Archaeological Research Project (SHARP) have an exciting job opportunity for a young aspiring chef. Our on-site kitchen caters for an archaeological field school which has been running for over 25 years. We provide breakfast, lunch and two-course dinner (main meal and a dessert) for up to 60 people attending the excavation, over a 6 day week. As well as occasionally providing extra cakes and food for open days and tours for the general public.

All meals will be provided free of charge, and the wage starts at £10.50 per hour.

Team typically work between 20-30 hours per week, and shifts are flexible to prior commitments.

Must be able to commute to and from site OR be willing to stay on site with rest of team in a tent or small caravan. (a tent can be provided if needed)

Duties will include: Veg and meal prep, cooking meals, helping with menu ideas, maintaining a clean work environment, stocking lunch buffet, ensuring the smooth run of dinner service, and more.

For further information and to apply, please contact SHARP's catering manager: Kali Saint Graham

kalisaint@hotmail.co.uk

www.SHARP.org.uk